Being Yourself

As we are thrust into future perspectives, each one of us is faced with a critical choice of direction. We are confronted with preparations of awareness amid which we must forge for ourselves a unity out of our childhood traces and our adulthood aspirations. The world is still itself, but seems changed as it beckons to us, its doors opened to us and asking, if not daring us to come in.

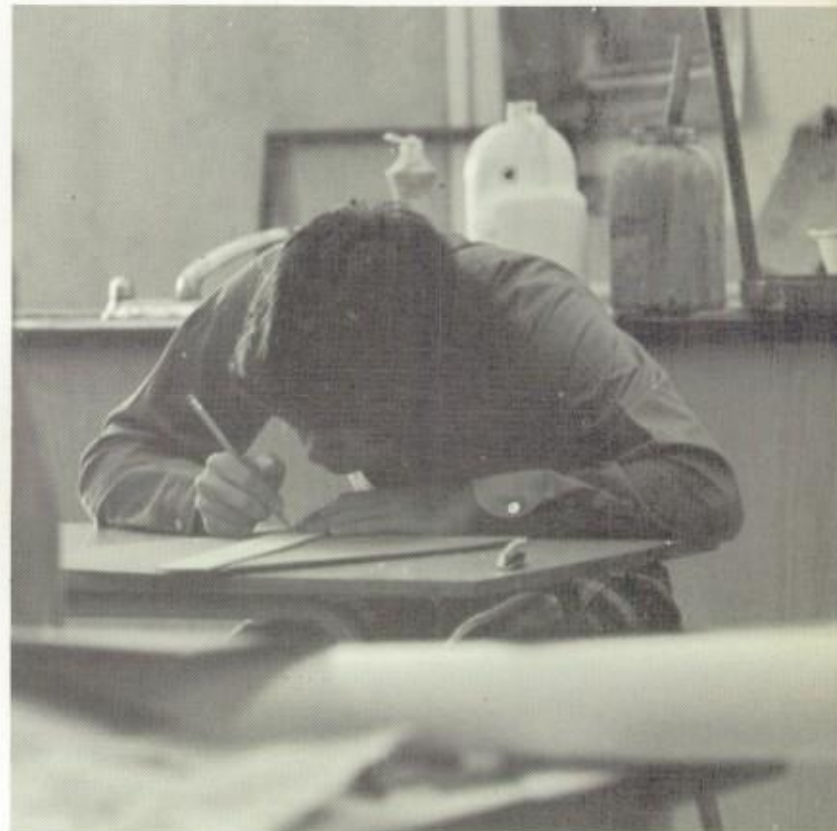

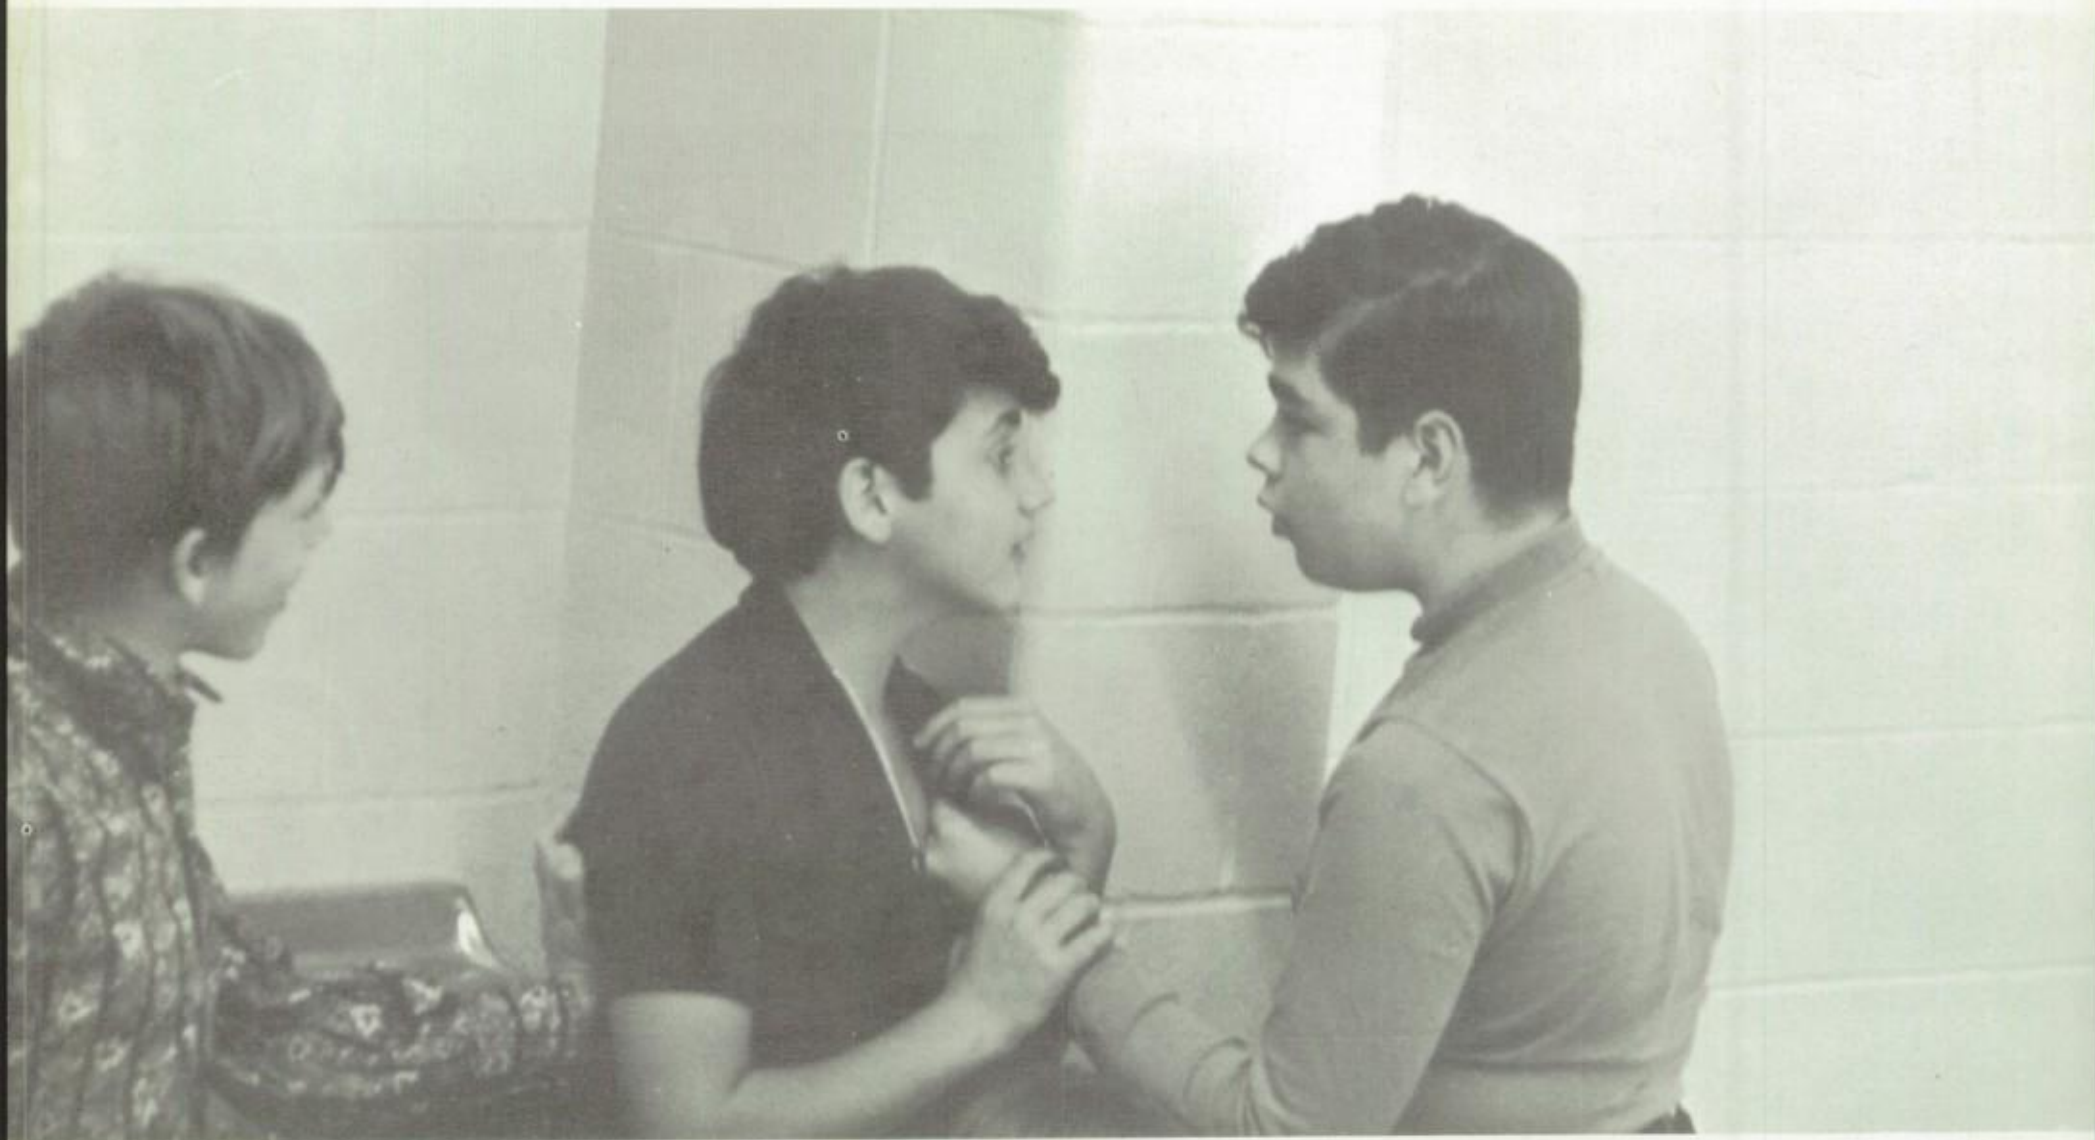

Now we can look back into the reflections of what life used to be, but find that these are merely separate remnants of ourselves, growing up together, as children, as students, or as people with always a reason why and always a place to turn to.

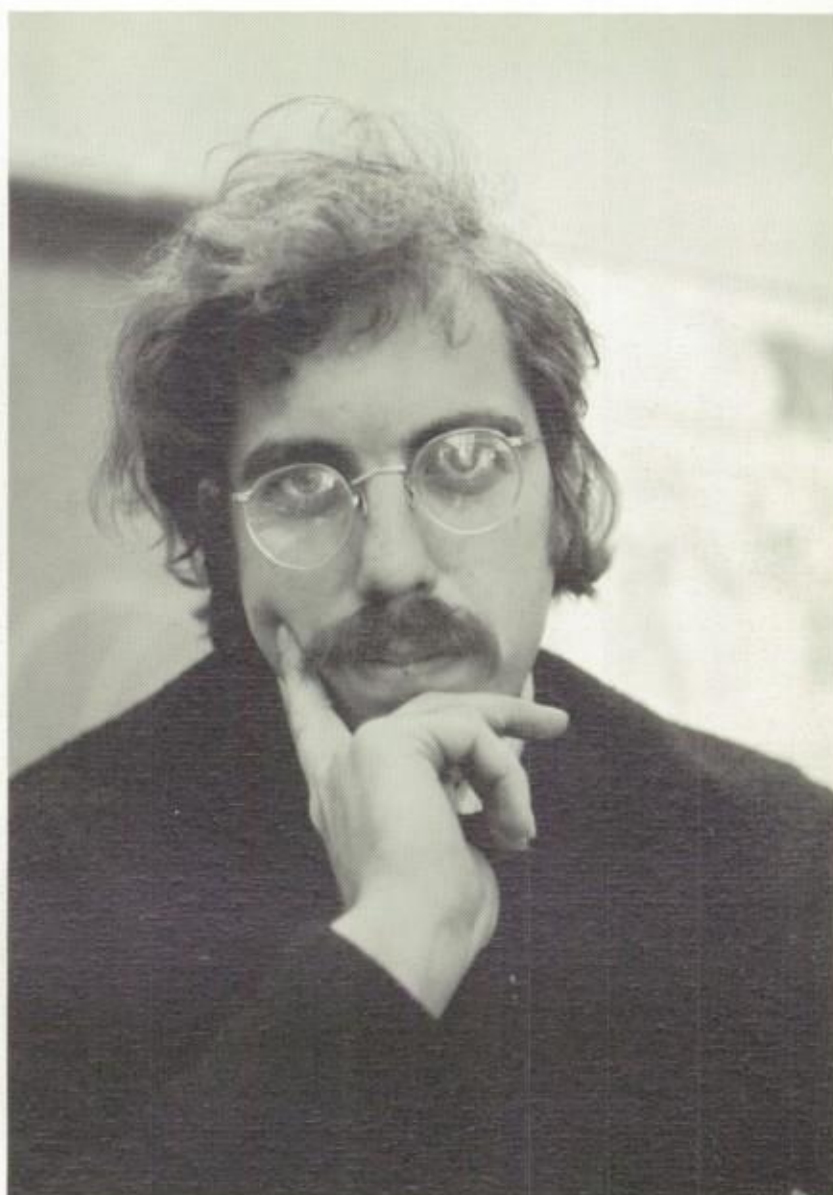

Not so very long ago we were caught up in the hopes and imitations of our close, related society. What we accomplished, we did so for them, fulfilling their expectations for our futures. These were merely guidelines, though, that taught us, molded us, and readied us for those things yet to come.

Although too soon they came, we acknowledge these rough prospects with a firm background, thus enabling us to walk out independently to meet the call that has waited in all time and space for one individual.

We have been waiting and unravelling since birth the cocoon that has embraced us, forming and selecting, and we have burst with fullness to see our happy selves.

Dedication

With tender admiration for your smiling brilliance, your unsaid understanding, and the delicate manner with which you have given your mind and your learning to us, Miss K., we dedicate our book to you.

We recognize the determination with which you have overcome the barriers of a foreign land and language, continuing on to become valedictorian of your class. These accomplishments are a tribute to the enthusiasm and capability that you display in all your endeavors.

The ability to guide the best of each student to its fullest extent has proved itself many times over—in the classroom and in the many activities in which you have participated throughout the years. Being the director of several plays, coordinator of many Latin festivals, and an avid participant in various activities indicates your personal involvement in the school and its pupils.

This dedication, then, is a token of our appreciation for the friendship and devotion that you have shown every student, and to you we extend our sincere gratitude.

FRENCH GIRL IS CHOSEN VALEDICTORIAN OF CLASS AT LENOX HIGH SCHOOL

Marie Anne Kergaravat Could Not Speak English Five Years Ago—Hedwig Berberich, Second Honor Student, Is Native of Germany

LENOX, June 5.—The highest honor in the senior class at the Lenox High School has been won by Marie Anne Kergaravat, a native of France, who came to this country less than five years ago unable to speak a word of English. Hedwig Berberich, salutatorian, is a German girl; Italia Conte, third honor student, was born in this country, the daughter of Italian parents; and Edna Herrick is the fourth honor student. This announcement was made today by Henry L. Smith, superintendent of schools.

Miss Kergaravat, valedictorian, is the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Toussaint Kergaravat who reside at Stoneover, the estate of Miss Mary Parsons. Upon her arrival here she entered Lenox High School as a freshman, unable to speak a word of English. She was born in Finistere, Brittany, France, never went to an English speaking grammar school before entering the High School here, and has learned her English completely during her high school course. She speaks the language fluently today, with a slight French accent. When she entered the High School many of her schoolmates, who were also French, began to converse with her in her native tongue, but this was prohibited by Mr. Smith, who was at that time principal, and as a result she began to learn English quickly. Her average for the four years is 93.07 per cent. Miss Kergaravat's father was in the French army for four years during the World War.

Is Member of Debating Team

Miss Berberich, also 18 years old, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Berberich. She was born in Germany and came to this country 10 years ago when she began to attend the American schools. Her father is also an employee on Miss Parsons' estate and served as a German government railroad official during the World War. Miss Berberich is a member of the Lenox High School debating team that defeated Searles High in the county contests.

The third honor student, Miss Conte, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Conte of Housatonic Street. She, too, is 18 years old.

Miss Herrick, fourth honor student, is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Herrick of East Street.

Superintendent Smith announced today that the class day exercises will be held Monday afternoon, June 25, and that graduation will take place in the Town Hall the following night.

Schools of this town will close for the summer vacation June 27.

Joseph Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Malone, and Richard Bard, son of Mrs. Mary Bard of Lenox Dale, will be speakers at the graduation exercises. The former will give the class prophecy and the latter the class history.

Principal's Message

Congratulations to the Class of 1972. I have profited much by our relationship and hope that the feeling has been mutually beneficial.

Many of you have now concluded your formal education. Others are about to move on to the next phase. In either case you have reached a critical point in your lives and now must assume your roles of citizen and accept the burden of responsibilities that are present in a democracy.

These are dynamic times. Your school years have borne witness to many crucial changes. The shift to the rights of the individual, the eighteen-year-old vote, women's liberation, and the terrible plight of the Vietnam war and drug abuse are only a few examples of these changes.

As the torch is passed from generation to generation along with it we ask, "Will you do better? You must!"

Only you hold the answer to such a question. It has been our goal to prepare you for the assumption of these roles and we hope we have done it well.

Good luck to you as you continue through life and always strive for peace, brotherhood and all else that is best for mankind.

Good Luck,
Paul E. Perachi

the
PRESSURES on the PUPIL

Clark Trip

Under the direction of Mr. Lewarn and Mr. Bona, thirty-five students went to the Clark Institute in Williamstown. The art was good and so was the bus ride.

Junior Car Wash

In search of financial support of our up-coming prom, the junior class was forced to resort to car washes. Although not discouraged by our first one, we did manage to sponsor another much more rewarding one.

Maypole

In May of 1971, Mrs. Kirchner organized a seventh grade supper. The class really united at this event with a large assemblage. Entertainment, such as a Maypole dance and various skits, were furnished.

Stratford Trip

Under the supervision of Miss Kergaravat, aided by Mr. Bona and Mr. Mercier, senior high students went on a most rewarding three hour trip to see Shakespeare's play "The Merry Wives of Windsor" in Stratford, Connecticut.

European Trip

A first occurred at Lenox High last April when a group of students and faculty advisor Mrs. Pignatelli took a two week tour of Europe. Ten days were spent in France, Germany, Switzerland, and Belgium were also on the agenda.

Junior Prom

After months of preparation the dreams of our Junior prom became realities. La Grotte des Chandelles (the cave of candles) was lovely, dark and deep. Now it's over and only pleasant memories remain, especially for king and queen—Jeff Lagarce and Kathy Weissbrod.

Western Mass Class "S" Champs

Coach Lafave—definitely a durable and exacting coach—led the team to a second place finish but A WESTERN MASS. CHAMPIONSHIP!

An unprecedented sweep of the Western Massachusetts baseball and basketball championships in one year was made by the L.M.H.S. Millionaires on Tuesday, June 15, 1971.

This double championship will never be duplicated. In the three years of the Class S. Baseball Tournament, no school has taken both the baseball and basketball honors and this year both sports will have statewide 3-division tournaments and the Class L. and S. competition will be eliminated.

Led by co-captains Billy Watson and Marty Johns, Lenox finished in the Southern Berkshire League with an 11-5 record. The Millionaires were then chosen as the fifth team in the Western Massachusetts Baseball Tournament.

The first game was at the U.Mass. field against Turners Falls. With a great pitching performance by Bruce Curley and overall good team play, we came out on top: 11-3. Our second game was at Holyoke's McKenzie Park where we were pitted against Monson. With John Hammig's pitching, the Millionaires were victorious: 11-0.

Now came "the" game, the championship. We played at Waconah Park and our opponent was St. Joseph's of Pittsfield. This was the most difficult game yet, but the boys were ready for it. At the end of the sixth inning, the score was 3-0 in favor of St. Joe. But the Millionaires tied the score at 3-3 in the seventh and hung on to force the game into overtime.

So, into the tenth inning we went and showed St. Joe some truly magnificent ball-playing. Marty Johns doubled and Paul Galey's sacrifice bunt moved him to third. Glenn Hoff and John Fielding were given intentional walks. The bases were loaded with 1 out and then it happened! Marty Johns took off from third base and Lynn Frisch laid down a perfect squeeze bunt—another Western Mass. Championship was ours!!

Congratulations Millionaires!!

Junior Honors Banquet

In June the Kiwanis honored junior honor students with a banquet at the Holiday Inn. Those who attended probably most call to mind the sing along with Mr. Bender more than the scholarly aspect of it.

Class Day and Graduation

Preceding the ceremonies of graduation, seniors and juniors participated in the activities of Class Day. Junior, Charles Domby was the recipient of the Rensselaer Mathematics and Science award. The zenith of the ceremony was the capping of the graduating seniors.

Graduation was a solemn and traditional event. David Parker and Susan Besaw addressed the assembly of parents and friends. It was an altogether traditional and sentimental occasion to be remembered.

In the spring, John Zarvis and his band the Mint Julip played at two separate performances in the high school gym. They were good and loud and the whole school got into it in one way or another.

Micro-Courses

Thanks to some creative people, the end of school didn't go out in boredom. Instead, a wide variety of classes were offered as the newly instituted Micro-Courses. They ranged from Religion, Revolution and Resistance, to How to Relax and Ease Tension, and gave the students a chance to spend their remaining days taking courses that they were interested in.

Western Massachusetts Banquet

On July 27, 1971 the baseball team was honored with a banquet at the Lenox House, sponsored by the Booster Club. Following various speeches, co-captains Marty Johns and Bill Watson presented the winning ball to Coach Lafave. Also presented was a certificate of achievement from Representative Duffin.

As Schools Match Wits

Sue Klug, Tom McIntyre, Dave Dean, Neil Olszewski, and Sue Vincelette were the Lenox representatives to the quiz show "As Schools Match Wits" this year. All considerations barred, we lost, but we will win one of these years, despite any of those bizarre, unanswerable questions that they may pose.

Yearbook Staff

This yearbook was produced by one of the most talented groups of young people that Lenox High has ever known. After months and months and in finium of blood, sweat, and tears, the masterpiece was complete.

The Lenox High soccer team had another below par season. Their 2-15-1 record, however, revealed a few pleasant surprises. Due to a lack of experience and the inability to play together as a unit, the team quickly went into a tailspin. Against the larger schools we really showed ourselves some dignity in the second half of the season by being in the game against Taconic, Waconah, Monument Mt., and Pittsfield. Also by beating Hoosac Valley and St. Joseph's (N.A.). The results of these games were quite to the satisfaction of Coach Michalski, who was able to play the deserving members of the team who merely needed experience.

Our defense was led by seniors Vince Strauser, Dave Davenport, Steve Brazee, and Don Boenitz. In the goal was the sophomore sensation Tim Bosworth, who made the hard ones look easy. Our offense was led by two four-year men, Charlie Domby and John Fielding. Others who made significant contributions to our offense were rookies Lynn Frisch, and veteran Dave Guy. John Fielding and Dave Davenport received honorable mention to the All-Berkshire squad.

Chess Team

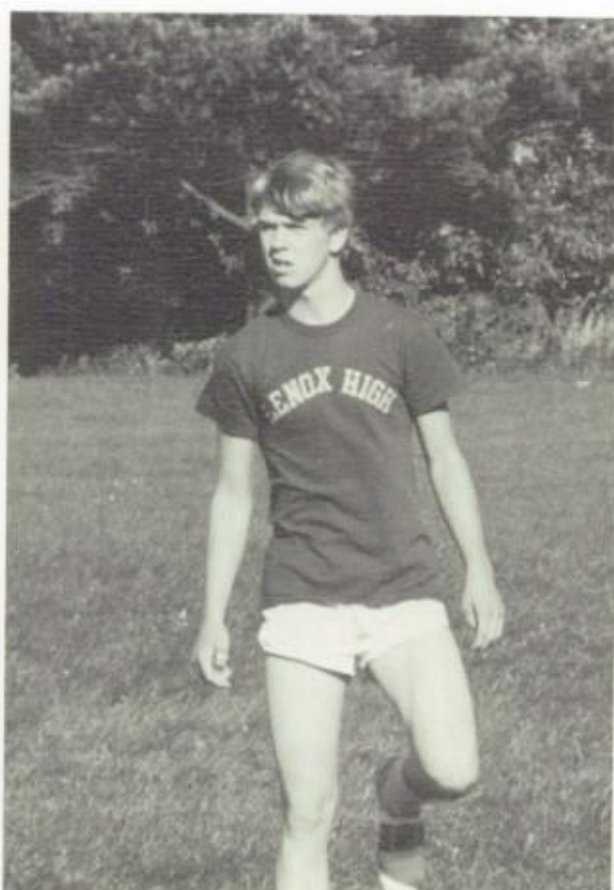

Cross - Country

The cross-country team at Lenox High showed the promise of becoming one of the best in the county until a rash of injuries began to plague them. Led by a determined captain, Jeff Lagarce, the team gave their opponents a good run, twice almost beating Waconah and Monument Mt.

Lagarce did well, finishing in the top five seven times, and averaged fifth in all the races. Don and Bill Lahart, together with John Hammig, Terry Hurley, and Russ Sorrell, raced very well for coach Charlie Spinney's squad.

The highlight of the season arrived when Lenox defeated Drury High. This was Lenox's first victory since the conception of the sport. Lagarce placed first while Donny and Billy Lahart came in third and fourth respectively.

Gold Medallion

Always a fine publication, the Gold Medallion has once again captured the demanding imagination of a highly reactive readership in the students of Lenox High. John Hinchcliff and Steve Snyder, editor and advisor respectively, worked together with a cooperative staff to produce an easily digestible combination of light entertainment and informative editorials.

Advisory Board

The student body owes the Advisory Board a vote of thanks for giving them an opportunity to make the school a better place for all. Under the fine leadership of Katherine Gilson, the board has performed well the job of advising our principal in matters relating to the school's welfare.

Student Council

Under the guidance of Louis Bertocci and President Tom Plageman, the Student Council tackled such monumental matters as the question of the soda machine and the long awaited revision of the Constitution.

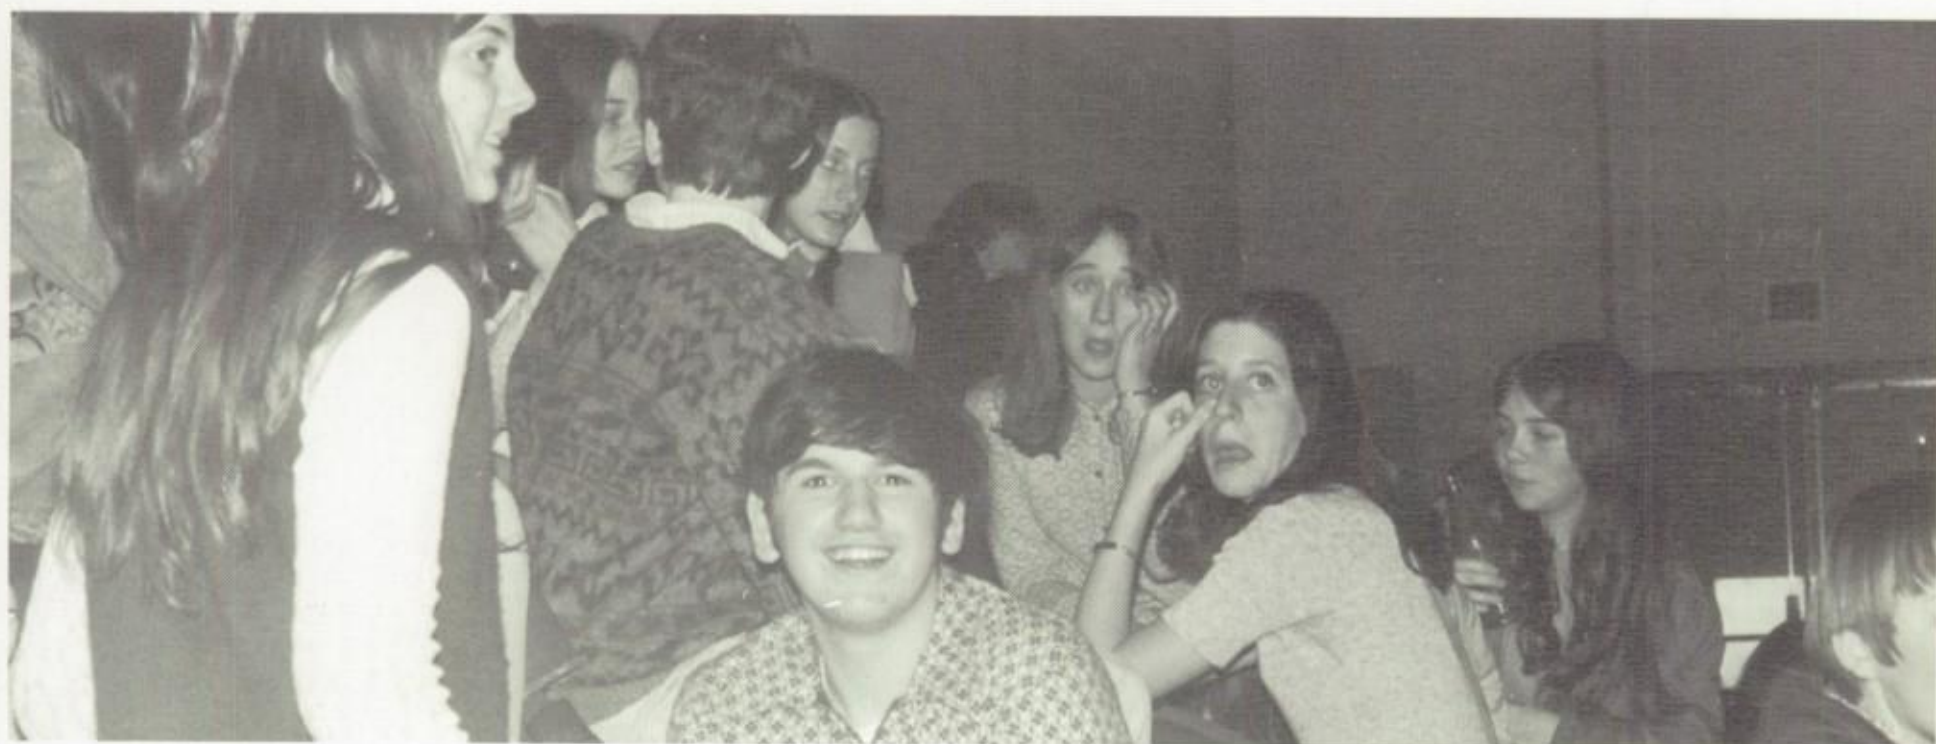

Junior Miss

This year marked the tenth annual Junior Miss Pageant in Lenox, which was again sponsored by the Kiwanis. Twenty-one of our senior girls culminated weeks of rehearsals, regrets, and butterflies in their stomachs one Saturday evening in a fine presentation of incredible talent and poise. When it was over, and Carol Kennedy was chosen as Junior Miss, everyone had to agree it was entirely a good time and worthwhile experience.

Dances

The seniors opened the school year with a dance featuring Owl. Somewhat later followed a dance sponsored by the newly formed Parent-Teacher-Student Organization, also with Owl. Then the new year saw the initiation of a new policy, whereby the Student Council scheduled monthly dances to be held by all student groups. Now the students have something to anticipate each month in the way of entertainment. The Student Council held the first in the series, with music by the Alum Rock Jukers.

French Club

As an upshot of last year's European Tour the French Club finally attained recognition as a spirited society. Under the direction of Mrs. M. J. Pignatelli, the club has had several meetings with great speakers, and has made tentative plans for another trip abroad.

Drama Class

Under the direction of Mr. Mercier the Drama Class presented two children's plays at Morris and Center schools. The King of the Golden River and Snow White were a great success; beneficial to the class as well as the kids.

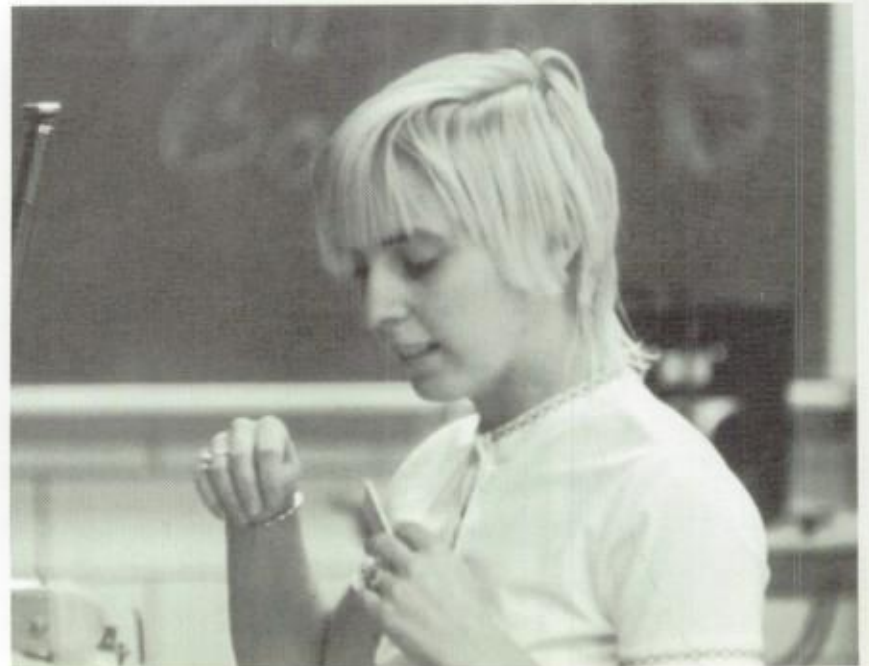

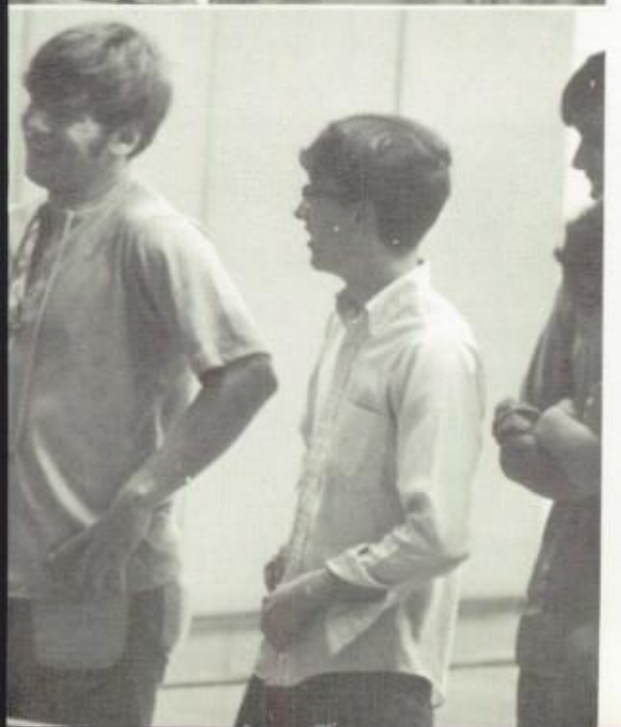

Senior Play

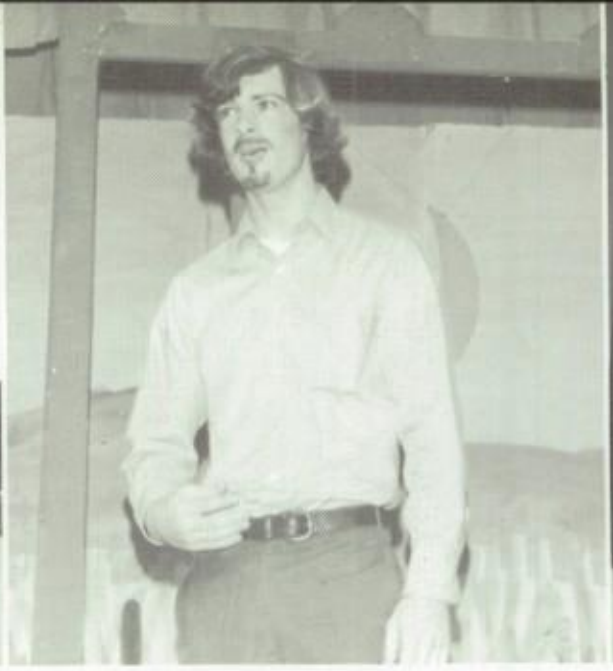

Tom Jones

The senior play was a smashing recreation of Fielding's Tom Jones. Tom Plageman and Peter Nolan portrayed Tom, and Carlene Gladding was the lovely leading lady, under the direction of Miss Beverly Ryder. Months of bedlam were transformed into a well received and well performed production.

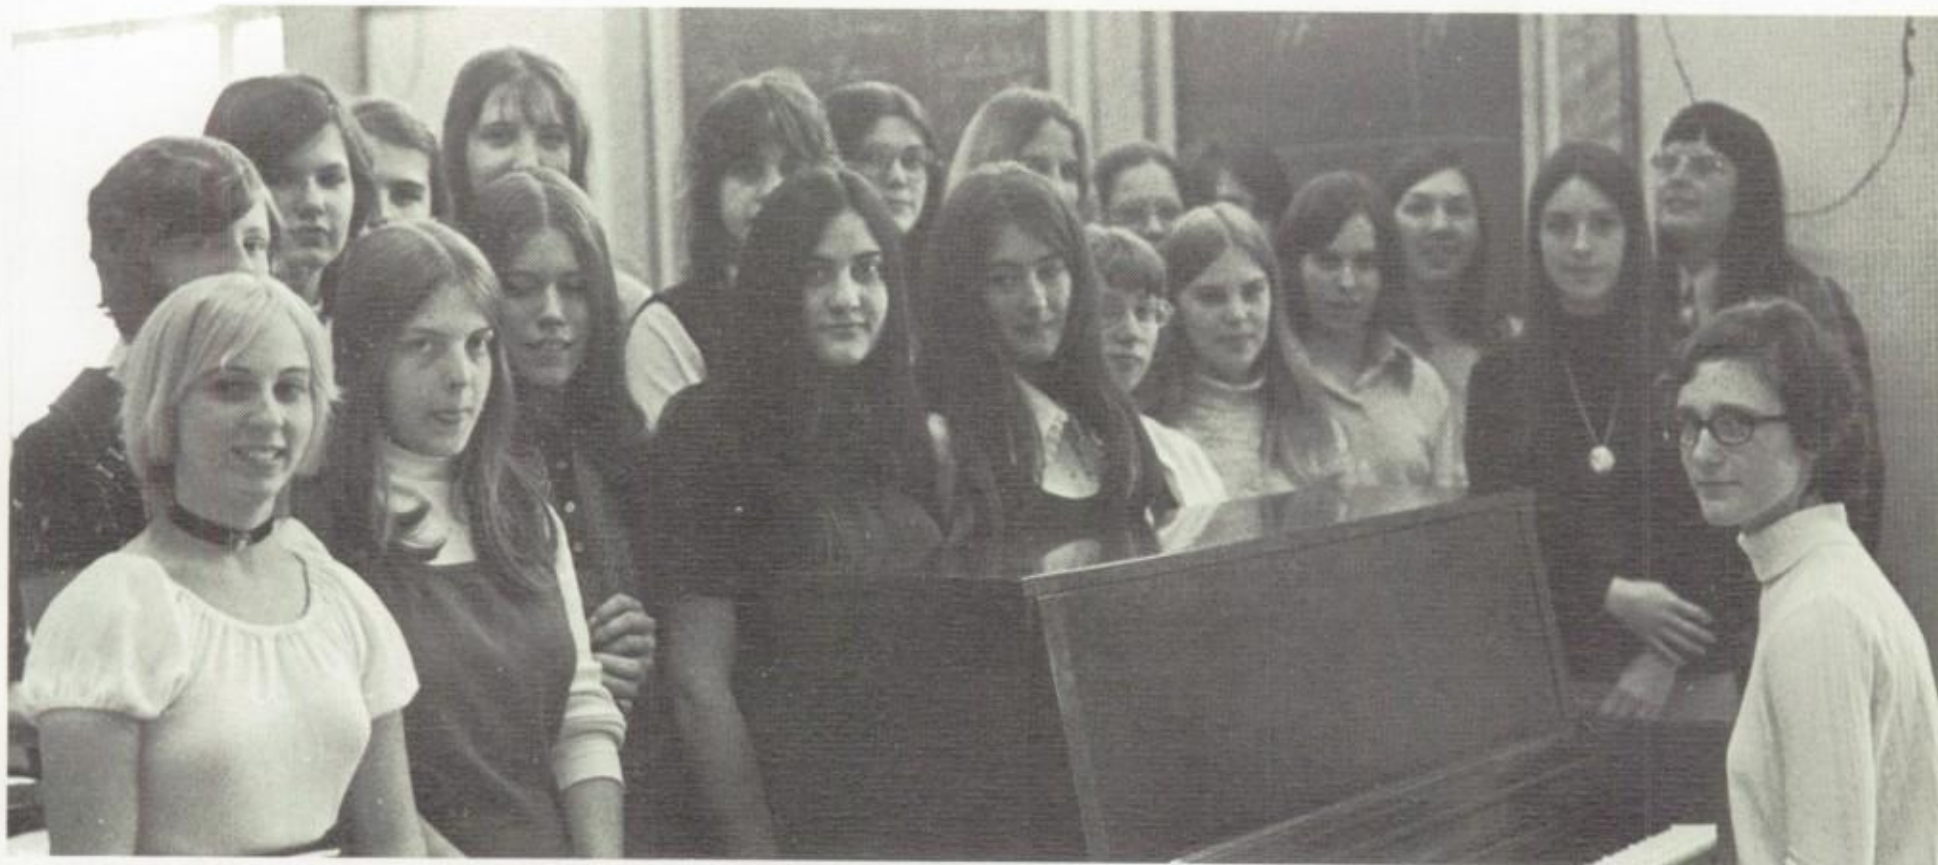

Christmas Concert

Christmastide was capped this year with a seasonal concert. A medley of carols was presented by the choruses directed by Miss Hunt and Miss Otto. Mr. Bowie led the bands, and the gala evening set the mood for the holidays to come.

This year Miss Leslie Hunt successfully revived the Junior and Senior Chorus of LMHS. With a barrellful of songs, the choruses presented a fine Christmas concert. We wish Miss Hunt and the chorus much luck in their future endeavors.

Coach Fred Lafave

1971-1972 was a season of disappointment for the Millionaires. After losing five starters and a front-line reserve from last year's Western Mass. Champions, the Millionaires had to start from scratch. Returning varsity players from last year are: John Hammig, Jeff Lagarce, Terry Hurley, Rick Fuore, and Shaun Formel. Promising players from the J.V.'s are Jack Gilson, Dick Watson, Donny Lahart, and Rick Shaffer. According to a new schedule change, the Millionaires had to play against the large schools of Northern Berkshire (Drury, Hoosac Valley, Pittsfield, and Taconic). Even though we were handled brutally in these games we played gallantly. One highlight of the season was the victory over Mt. Greylock in overtime, after they had beaten us on their home court in triple overtime.

Jeff Lagarce—co-captain—the take-charge guy—the team's floor general—good defensive player—leader in assists.

John Hammig—co-captain—unselfish player—team's leading scorer—smooth and cool in clutch situations—good rebounder for his size.

Terry Hurley—fantastic effort at Mt. Greylock—good rebounder—great corner shot.

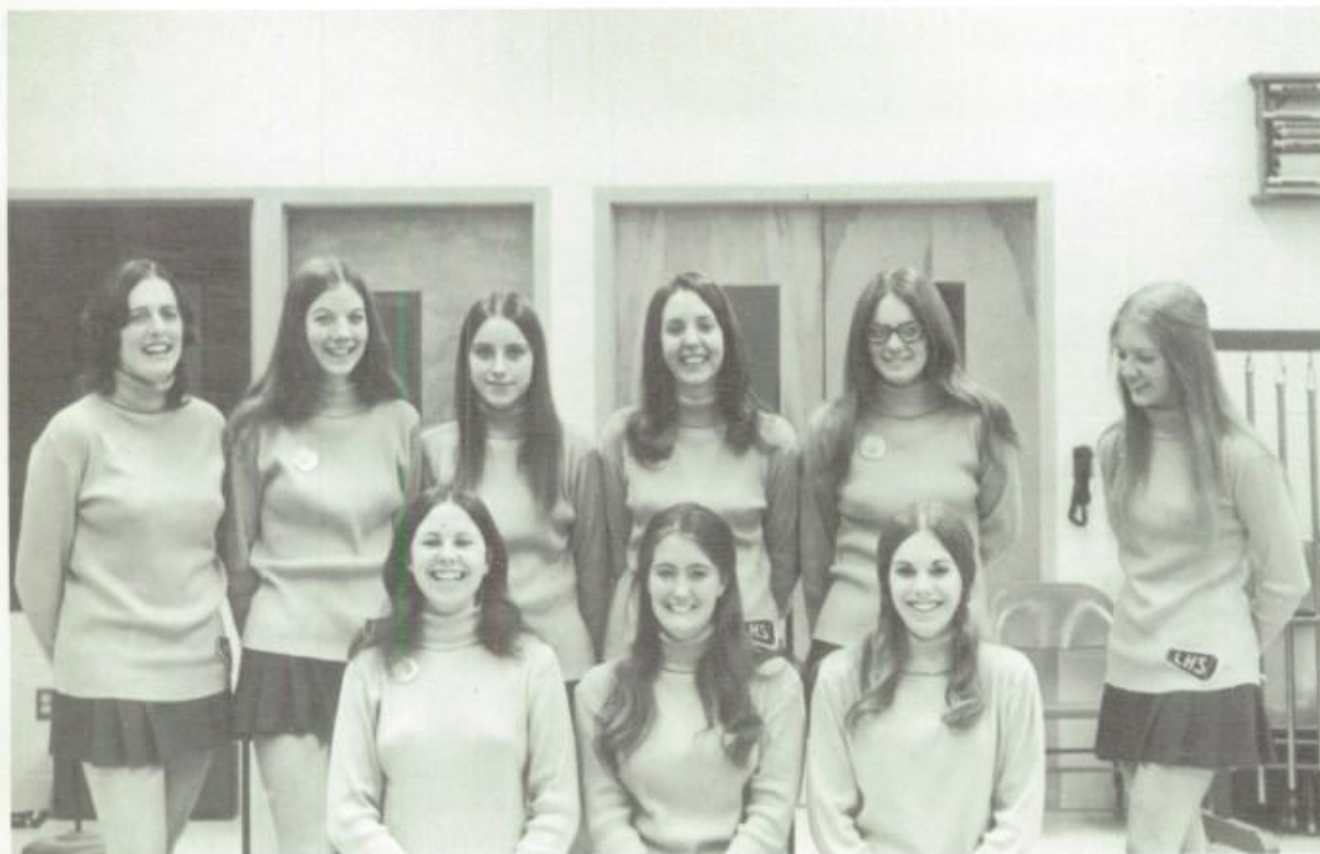

Rick "Chick" Fuore—good outside shooter—fantastic quickness—used to start our fast break—good moves.

Shaun Formel—our brawn under the boards—leading rebounder—good inside moves—team's best foul shooter.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Back Row: Judy Nichols, Maggie O'Brien, Kathy Weissbrod, Donna Pignatelli, Betsy Stevens, Debbie Kelley. Kneeling: Lisa Gilson, Mo Kane, co-captain, Sue Ryan.

Co-Captain, Denise Trabold,, Maureen Kane.

The cheerleaders began the season by cheering for the soccer team, later optimistically encouraging the basketball team to victory. Although hampered by one serious injury, their faithful patronage to every game proved that they backed their teams all the way.

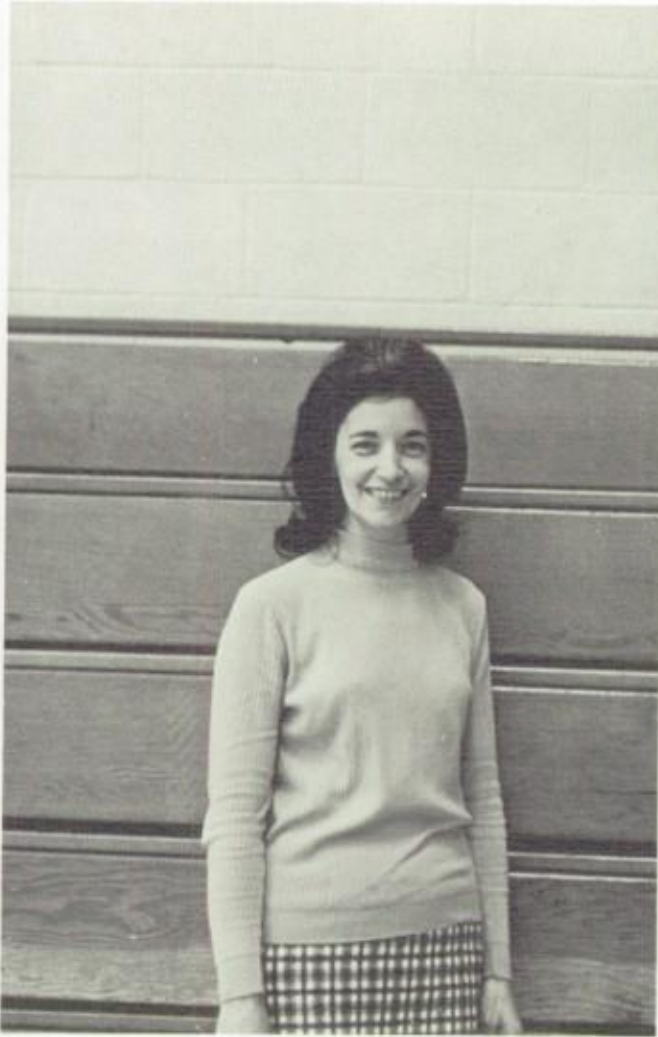

J.V. Basketball

Under Coach Joe Michalski, the J.V.'s are again playing towards another fine record. This year many young and deserving players were given the chance to prove themselves and their record proves the results. Again Coach Michalski's boys beat his hometown (Hoosac Valley) and like the varsity team, has played against much tougher competition with winning results. These young boys who gained so much experience on the J.V.'s, will probably be elevated to the varsity team next year. Congratulations on a job well-done.

Under the fresh, vivacious coaching of Miss Mercier, (Girl's P.Ed.), the girl's team concentrated their efforts to rebuild the team after the graduation of several starters. Although they had few wins to show for their efforts, their teamwork and experience improved greatly under the leadership of Captain Pat Byrnes. This is shown by the excellent performance of Julie Fielding, who was elected to the Southern Berkshire All-Star Team.

While the girls lacked uniforms for this season, hopefully next year will bring the new uniforms and more fruitful results.

Coach Homer Mead

T h i r d T e a m

Under a new coach, Homer Meade, the third team at Lenox Memorial High School has made much success and progress. The third team was instituted to promote a deeper understanding of those basketball techniques that will come when they are on the regular high school teams. This program will definitely help our teams out in the near future. When you look at their record you may not be impressed, but when one sees the competition they have played against, it seems rather impressive. Joe Healy and John Pirzl were elected co-captains and have exhibited a fine basketball sense. Other fine prospects are Mike Troisi, Jim Reidy, and Eddie Kennedy.

Intramural Champs

Intramural Basketball once again provided interested students with an opportunity to "have a good time". John Fielding's team, The Studs, clenched the championship in both rounds. Outstanding players on the team beside John were Brent Ross, Steve Todd, and Coach Terry Hurley.

Rooms for Rent

In response to months of overcrowding and cramming in the classroom, it looks as if our relief lies in being crated up. The portable classrooms, although unattractive in appearance, will serve as the Junior High wing of Lenox Memorial. Despite some shortcomings, there is consolation in the fact that there is carpeting and airconditioning in the rooms. The boxes should take care of us, indefinitely.

Art Club

The Art Club is an organization where interested students can meet and share their common project—Art. Advisors John Lewarn and Kathy Abert kindly consented to give up their time in an effort to encourage students to pursue their creativity.

Band

This year, the Lenox Memorial High School Band prospered under the direction of Miss Leslie Hunt. The fourteen-member band presented two concerts; a Christmas concert and a spring concert.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society concluded its fifth year of existence under the guidance of a new advisor, Paul Duquette. Through the profit of candy bar sales the society was able to sponsor a concert of the West-over Air Force Band and a college seminar. Also instituted this year was an in-class tutoring service.

The induction in May of twenty-four new members was out of this world!

Rusty Hunter

The Lenox High Ski Team had another successful season and they promise to be one of the county's best. They were led by Jeff MacFayden and Peter Cassavant who always placed high on the list of the top skiers in their meets.

The cross-country team, although still quite young, proved to be quite substantial. While not tearing up any record books, they were definitely a force to contend with.

This year, a jumping team was instituted, and it came off rather well. Even though we had no great jumper, it provided experience for future teams.

The female side of the team was also very successful. Sue Plageman and Debbie Van Alstyne were the top skiers for the girls team.

Intramural Volleyball

In a valid effort to expand the intramural program, this year we witnessed the institution of volleyball. Perhaps the first co-ed sport, it proved to stimulate several well-enjoyed evenings and afternoons.
